

les of the International Federation, thus the solution should give full satisfaction to all concerned who will thus have an opportunity of organising the race on the same lines as that of Chamonix in 1924.

The Executive Committee after having dealt with some less important question, requested Baron de Blo-nay to go to St. Moritz in order to confer with the delegates of the International Federations and the Or-ganising Committee on the questions of transporting the bobs, organisation of the track, tribunes, etc.

Finally, the General Programme was approved.

Games of the IXth Olympiad, Amsterdam, 1928.

The Organising Committee submitted to the Execu-tive Committee several points in connection with the programme of Gymnastics, Athletics and Football, the date of the Games and the sending of the invitations. The Executive Committee will give a decision on these questions after having got into touch with the authori-ties concerned.

The request of the International Union of Shooting to include military shooting in the programme was re-jected for the same reason that Lugging and Curling were excluded.

A request made by Colonel Thompson was also re-jected.

The dates of the Games have been fixed as follows:
Hockey (on Grass): May 17th - 26th 1928.

Football: May 27th - June 15th, 1928.

Opening date of the Games: Saturday, July 28th, 1928.

Closing of the Games: Sunday, August 12th, 1928.

A medical sports congress will be held at Amster-dam during the Olympic Games.

Having discussed several less important matters the Executive Committee approved of the general line of this programme.

Playing Fields:

General Kentish read a report made by the Playing Fields Committee at the Hague. The findings of this Committee were approved and will be carried out.

The President informed his colleagues of the favour-able result of the negotiations with the International Rowing Federation, he gave the names of the delegates of the different International Federations and expres-sed his satisfaction at the happy results already obtained through this collaboration.

No change has taken place since the Hague confe-rence with regard to the position of the International Lawn Tennis Federation. According to a letter from M. Gallay the whole question is to be reconsidered at the Congress in March.

M. Petitjean, General Sports Manager of the Inter-national Union of Students informed the International Olympic Committee that the Union had decided to withdraw the word «Olympic» from its Games and will in future call them «International Universities Games». This decision was favourably received and will have a most beneficial effect on the relations existing between the two groups.

The International Union of Railways expressed regret at its inability to accede to a reduction of 50% in the transport of athletes and officials to the Olympic Games and informed the Committee that requests for reductions must be dealt with separately in each country.

The Committee considered the candidates for the Olympic Cup in 1928, the election of new members, candidates for the forthcoming Games, payment of sub-scriptions, the financial position and the Official Bul-letin. The result of the Bulletin for the first year was considered satisfactory but not as good as it should be and the Executive Committee once more urges on the International Olympic Committee to try and convince all persons who have anything to do with the Olympic Games directly or indirectly to subscribe to the Bulle-tin.
