

About Boxing.

M. Oscar Söderlund of Stockholm informs us that the « Fédération internationale de boxe amateur » has held a congress in November last at London at which 24 members were represented. It has been decided that the F. I. B. A. was extinct and a new federation should be formed. The name of the new federation is the « Amateur International Boxing Association » (A. I. B. A.) ; its members are the same as those of the F. I. B. A., except Germany and Japan, and its rules and regulations are in principle the same as those of the F. I. B. A. The President is M. E. Grémaux, 100, rue de l'Université Paris.

— The hon. secretary of the A. I. B. A. is Colonel Russel, c./o. the A. B. A., 69, Victoria Street, London S. W. 1.
