

One should not forget...

that the members of the I. O. C. are to consider them selves as delegates of the committee to the sports organisations of their own country. They are not the delegates of their country near the I. O. C.