

Prices of admission tickets for the Helsinki Olympic Games.

Tickets for the Helsinki Olympic Games 1952 will, in the main, be valid for a single admission. The tickets for the track and field competitions at the Olympic Stadium are for daily admission. Generally every stand will have tickets in four price classes, one of which will be for standing-places.

Ticket prices abroad will be bound to the U. S. dollar.

The prices in dollars are as follows:

1. price class 7 dollars;
2. price class 5 dollars;
3. price class 4 dollars;
4. price class 3,5 dollars;
5. price class 3 dollars;
6. price class 2 dollars;
7. price class 1,5 dollars;
8. price class 1 dollar.

To the Olympic Stadium will furthermore be sold a small amount of special tickets of varying prices between 15-10 dollars.

How the sale will be arranged in the different countrys abroad has not yet been decided on. 50% of all admission tickets will be made available abroad.

When buying admission tickets, an Olympic visitor may reserve accommodation by purchasing the necessary lodging vouchers (one for each day). The Lodging Office does not guarantee accommodation for those Olympic visitors who are whitout a lodging voucher.

The different accommodation available, and prices:

1. Private accommodation:

I class single room: dollars 5,00 4,00, 3,50, 3,00.

I class double room: dollars 6,00, 5,00, 4,50, 4,00.

I class room with 3 beds: dollars 7,00, 6,00, 5,50, 5,00.

II class single room: dollars 3,00, 2,80, 2,50

II class double room: dollars 4,00, 3,70, 3,40.

II class room with 3 beds: dollars 5,00, 4,60, 4,30.

III class single room: dollars 2,00, 1,70.

III class double room: dollars 2,30, 2,00.

III class room with 3 beds: dollars 2,90, 2,60.

2. Community housing.

Bed (with blanket and sheets): dollar 1,50.

A bed without blanket and sheets (the visitor must provide the necessary bedclothes himself): dollar 1,00.

3. Camping accommodation.

A bed in a tent: dollar 0,60.

A camp site: dollar 0,30.

4. Hotel accommodation.

All the hotel rooms in Helsinki are reserved for foreign Olympic visitors. The prices will be fixed and annonced later.
