

ARMAND MASSARD

*Former olympic fencer champion (1920).
Member of the I. O. C. since 1946.
Elected Vice-President at the Helsinki Session 1952.*

Although universally known in the sporting circles, and especially in France where his contact with sport is considerable, we wish to present to our readers Mr. Armand Massard, new Vice-President of the I. O. C. We have pleasure to publish his « curriculum vitae sportivae » which we have tried to make as complete as possible.

M. ARMAND MASSARD at the time he was captain of the French fencing olympic team at the Amsterdam Games 1928, winning the silver medal. Olympic champion, 1920 (Antwerp).