

Official Communication from the Organizing Committee of the VIIth Winter Olympic Games, Cortina 1956

We are pleased to inform that the official film on the VIIth Olympic Winter Games, Cortina 1956, called "Vertigine Bianca", is ready for distribution since the end of the last "month.

As you know, according to Art. 59 of the International Olympic Committee Rules, our Committee has granted the exclusive rights for the taking and editing of this film to : Istituto Nazionale LUCE, Via Santa Suzanna 17, Rome.

No film company, neither Italian nor foreign, besides the above mentioned one has been authorized to take film shots of the Games for commercial use. Therefore, any moving picture other than the one produced by Istituto Nazionale LUCE is to be considered as illegally taken.

Whoever is interested in the official list is kindly requested to address enquiries direct to the above mentioned address.

Dr. G. R. Fabjan, secr.