

The Olympic Committee of Saar is dissolved

The International Olympic Committee has been let known by the Olympic Committee of Saar that this organization has been dissolved and is being part of Germany's Olympic Committee from September 20th on. This decision follows the political convention signed between France and Germany.

The International Olympic Committee, after having kept the best of relations with that Committee, wishes to express their thanks to its leaders for the courtesy and attachment to the Olympic Movement they have always shown in every circumstances.

The Olympic Committee of Saar had been acknowledged by the International Olympic Committee at their session of Copenhagen in 1950.
