
OLYMPIC AWARDS FOR 1958

We remind to those it may concern (members International Olympic Committee, National Olympic Committees and International Federations) that the Olympic awards for 1958 will be granted by the International Olympic Committee during its Tokyo Session in May next. Nominations of candidates for these awards, with qualifications in writing, must be received by the International Olympic Committee at its office in Lausanne before the first of March next.

Those awards are :

The Olympic Cup (to an institution or association) ;

The Olympic Diploma of Merit (to an individual) ;

The Fearnley Cup (to an amateur Sport club or local association) ;

The Mohammed Taher Trophy (to an amateur athlete) ;

The Count Bonacossa Trophy (to a National Olympic Committee).