

Some items of interest...

As a result of the four resignations of senior members which have been handed at the Session in Sofia, the International Olympic Committee has now only three members who were originally nominated by Baron de Coubertin himself.

They are :

Mr. Angelo Bolanaki (1910) - Mr. Arnaldo Guinle (1923) and Dr. J. Ferreira Santos (1923). The former is member for Greece and both last mentioned are members for Brazil.