

Election of the President of the Organizing Committee of the Games in Rome in 1960

At the proposal of M. Giulio Onesti, President of the Italian National Olympic Committee, M. Giulio Andreotti, Minister in the Treasury of the Italian Government, was elected President of the Organizing Committee of the Games of the XVIIth Olympiad by the National Council of the Italian National Olympic Committee, in the course of its XVIth Session, held on November 20th, 1958. This nomination was approved unanimously and had the full support of M. Thaon di Revel and M. Giorgio de Stefani, members of the International Olympic Committee for Italy. We wish to congratulate M. Andreotti, and to convey to him our best wishes for his future success.