

The Executive Board will also meet the International Federations IN MUNICH

Four days later, the Executive Board of the International Olympic Committee will also meet the Delegates of the International Federations who are already holding a Meeting of all the International Federations on the preceding day. This Conference will take place in the Bavarian capital on Saturday May 23rd 1959 while the actual Session of the International Olympic Committee will open at Munich, on Monday May 25th, and is to end on Wednesday May 27th 1959. In the course of this Session, the members of the International Olympic Committee will be called upon to decide which cities will have the honour of staging the Games of the XVIIIth Olympiad of 1964 and that of the IXth Olympic Winter Games which are going to be held in the same year.

In the course of that same Session, the Delegates of the Organizing Committee of the Games in Rome (1960) and the Delegates of the Organizing Committee of the Winter Games (Squaw Valley) will present their final reports to the members of the International Olympic Committee.
