

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The following work has just been published (English text and one edition in Italian):

XVIITH OLYMPIAD, ROME 1960, by Harold Abrahams. Preface by Roger Bannister. This book consists in a brief history of the Olympic Games including unpublished texts by former athletes or Olympic champions amongst whom we find a mention of Mr. Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee. As well as this, this work contains a complete record of the results of the Games of the Modern Era and some very interesting statistics.

This book can be obtained from the following Publishers: Cassel & C^o. Ltd. 35, Red Lion Square, London W.C. 1, also at: Melbourne, Sydney, Toronto, Cape Town, Johannesburg and Auckland.