

Happy Austrian Initiative

The Austrian Banks Union has just published a richly illustrated opuscle on the Olympics in Rome. Aiming at making the Olympic ideal a living desire in the hearts of the Austrian youths, this booklet, under the auspices of the Austrian Olympic Committee, has just been distributed gratis to 100,000 pupils attending the schools of that country. Our sincere congratulations for this happy initiative.
