

BIBLIOGRAPHY

JUST PUBLISHED

A TRAVERS LES ANNEAUX OLYMPIQUES

by

OTTO MAYER, CHANCELLOR

of the International Olympic Committee

This book deals with the history of the International Olympic Committee and its Sessions from 1894 to 1960, (including the Session in Rome in 1960). It is based on authentic documentary evidence such as Baron de Coubertin written records, reports of minutes, etc. This work contains original unpublished documents (French Edition). Richly illustrated, this book has 330 pages. Price 12,— Swiss Frs. (or one Pound or 3 dollars). Publishers: Pierre Cailler, 10, avenue des Deux-Ponts, Pully-Lausanne.

Can also be obtained from the author: c/o International Olympic Committee, Mon-Repos, Lausanne.

OYMPISCHE SPIELE 1960. — A German publication profusely illustrated by magnificent photographs which depict the Wintie Olympics at Squaw Valley and the Olympic Games of 1960 in Rome. The preface is written by Mr. Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee. Linenbound, this book has been published by COPRESS-VERLAG, Schellingstrasse 39-41, Munich 13. An English edition of this book can be obtained from Barnes & C°, Publishing House, New York, or at Yoseloff in London.

SKIING AND WINTER SPORTS. — A fine publication in two volumes written by Serge Lang in Bâle. These volumes deal with historical, biographical and technical subjects pertaining to Winter Sports, and are richly illustrated throughout. The author, a well-known journalist, secured the assistance of several collaborators who are authorities on the matter. We recommend this publication to everyone who is interested in Winter Sports. This publication is obtainable from European Union Publishing House, in two volumes.

OLYMPIA 1960. — This book consists of 367 pages, richly bound and fully illustrated. This work gives a full account of the Winter Olympics of 1960 and the Games of the XVIIth Olympiad in Rome. It gives a complete record of the results of the first six athletes placed in each event. The appropriate texts of this work are in German. The preface is written by Mr. Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee. The publishers are: Süd-West Verlag, Prinzregentenstrasse 18 /V Munich. This book is highly recommended to our readers, be it only on account of the numerous magnificent photographs it contains.

GOALKEEPER AND FULL BACK IN FOOTBALL.
— Two new publications fully illustrated.
They deal with the game through the eyes of the Goalkeeper and the Full Back and outlines the training and coaching techniques which will help them to play. 32 pages.

Price: 2/6 d. each. Editor: Educational Productions Limited, East Ardsley, Wakefield, Yorkshire, England.