

The New Edition of the Olympic Rules

The new edition 1961 of the Olympic Rules will be published very shortly. It will contain all the alterations decided in the last International Olympic Committee Sessions and will be sent free of charge to International Olympic Committee members, International Federations and National Olympic Committees. Supplementary copies are available to anyone interested in them against payment of Swiss Fr. 8,— (or 2 dollars) or any other foreign currency negociable in Switzerland.

Edition 1958 is not any more valid.