

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Rétrospectives olympiques

by OTTO MAYER, CHANCELLOR
of the International Olympic Committee

The author recalls the beginning of Modern Olympism and mentions the difficulties and disappointments of Baron de Coubertin in organizing the first Games in 1896 in Athens and those of Paris in 1900. This book contains also the official (practically unknown) report of the 1896 Games, the history of the first Marathon race and a savoury story from the American athlete Curtius who took part in those Games, etc. This work is illustrated and is published in French. Publisher: Pierre Cailler, 10 avenue des Deux-Ponts, Pully-Lausanne. Price is Swiss Fr. 9.— (or 2 dollars). Can also be obtained from the author: c/o. International Olympic Committee, Mon Repos, Lausanne.

A travers

les Anneaux olympiques

by OTTO MAYER, CHANCELLOR
of the International Olympic Committee

This book deals with the history of the International Olympic Committee and its Sessions from 1894 to 1960, (including the Session in Rome in 1960). It is based on authentic documentary evidence such as Baron de Coubertin written records, reports of minutes, etc. This work contains original unpublished documents (French Edition). Richly illustrated, this book has 330 pages. Price 12,— Swiss Frs. (or one Pound or 2 dollars). Publishers: Pierre Cailler, 10, avenue des Deux-Ponts, Pully-Lausanne.

Can also be obtained from the author:
c/o International Olympic Committee, Mon-Repos, Lausanne.