

The Olympic Museum of Lausanne

4,640 people visited the Olympic Museum of Lausanne in 1961. This number is not enough, and so an important action will be undertaken in July 1962, with the active collaboration of the Swiss Olympic Committee on the occasion of its fiftieth anniversary. A special exhibition will be organized, showing through paintings, the sacred places of Olympia. Radio and Television reports will also be organized in the Museum and some ex-Olympic champions will be invited to appear on Television. The presentation of that important event has been entrusted to Mr. Jean Weymann, Hon. Secretary of the Swiss Olympic Committee, who has kindly offered to do all he can for the International Olympic Committee.
