

To the National Olympic Committees

One has asked us to open a rubric in our Bulletin, in view to publish informations from the National Olympic Committees. They could give us details on their activities, give suggestions and participate in the Olympic Movement in a more active way.

We give you this idea with pleasure and sympathy and open the columns of our Bulletin with the hope that you will use them widely.

We have now expressed the wish of one of the 100 National Olympic Committees.