

*A Meeting convened for February 8th 1963 is to take place in Lausanne between, the International Federations
and the Executive Board of the International Olympic Committee*

Perturbed by several cases of politics interfering with sport, the Executive Board of the International Olympic Committee has thought it wise to convene a Meeting on February 8th 1963, calling up the International Federations particularly affected. It is a special meeting which does not cancel the Conference scheduled for June 8th 1963, when the only item on the order of the day will deal with :

Sport and Politics

No doubt a firm derision will be taken on that occasion.
