
The Baroness P. de Coubertin

celebrated her 101st Anniversary on December 21st, 1962, in Lausanne

This anniversary has been celebrated in Lausanne in presence of the Authorities of the State, the City of Lausanne, personalities of sport and friends. A worthy and simple ceremony, but impressed by a warm sympathy towards the Baroness who was "the companion of the Renovator of the Olympic Games of the modern area. The Baroness was gay and happy, cut her Anniversary cake and drunk her glass of wine to the health of those present.

Our wishes and congratulations.
