

The Inauguration of a Copy of the de Coubertin stele at Lausanne

The Hellenic Olympic Committee has made a gift to the city of Lausanne of a copy of the Olympia stele containing the heart of the Baron Pierre de Coubertin. This gracious gesture of the Greek Committee has been greatly appreciated, as much by the city of Lausanne as by the International Olympic Committee. This stele has been placed in the park of Mon Repos, near the headquarters of the International Olympic Committee and its inauguration was held, (unluckily in rainy weather), on June 6th last, in the presence of representatives of the International Olympic Committee and the International Federations who were meeting that day in Lausanne and the delegates of the Swiss Olympic Committee. This worthy ceremony, necessarily brief because of the bad weather, was presided over by Mr. G.-A. Chevallaz,
