
More figures from the Tokyo Games

The number of spectators at the various events was the greatest ever registered in the modern

Olympic Era. 2 000 983 tickets were issued and 1 928 326 were sold (96,4%).

The net total of participants was (after athletes having participated¹ in more than one sport were deducted) 4 826 men and 732 women = 5 558.