

Sudden death of Mr. Jean Ketseas

At the moment of going to press, we learn of the sudden death of Mr. Jean Ketseas, member of the I.O.C. for Greece. He died on April 6th, and the sad news cast a shadow over the Olympic meetings held in Lausanne some days later. In our next Bulletin we shall write of the personality of Mr. Ketseas and of his continual devotion to the Olympic Movement. We offer our deepest sympathy to Madame Ketseas and to the Hellenic Olympic Committee, of which he was one of the vice-president, for this cruel loss, which the International Olympic Committee also feels very keenly.
