Stop press

On April 26th at its session in Rome, the International Olympic Committee, after several ballots, selected the two towns that will organize the 1972 Olympic and Winter Games. Munich was chosen for the Games of the XXth Olympiad and Sapporo for the XIth Olympic Winter Games. We shall be giving further details concerning this selection in our next "Bulletin".

We also wish a warm welcome to Mr. Johann W. Westerhoff, the new secretary general of the I.O.C., when we shall present to our readers in the next « Bulletin ».
