GAMES OF THE ...th OLYMPIAD / ...th OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

The Olympic Games assemble in fair and equal competition those amateurs who comply with the Olympic Eligibility Code, quotations from which follow :

A competitor must participate and always have participated in sport as an avocation without material gain of any kind. He qualifies :

- a) if he has a basic occupation designed to insure his present and/or future livelihood ;
- b) if he does not receive or has never received any remuneration for participation in sport ;
- c) if he complies with the rules of the International Federation concerned, and the official interpretations contained in the code.

OFFICIAL INTERPRETATIONS

Among others, the following are not eligible for Olympic competition :

Those who have participated for money, or who have converted prizes into money or, without permission of the National Federation within the Rules of the International Federation concerned, have received prizes exceeding 50 dollars in value, and those who have received presents which can be converted into money or other material advantages. *

Those who have capitalized in any way on their athletic fame or success, profited commercially therefrom or have accepted special inducements of any kind to participate, or those who have secured employment or promotion by reason of their sport performances rather than their ability, whether in commercial or industrial enterprises, the armed services or any branches of the press, theatre, television, cinema, radio, or any other paid activity. *

An athlete who becomes a professional in any sport or who has decided to become a professional or who plays in a professional team with a view to become a professional. *

Those who are paid for teaching or coaching others for competition in sport. *

Anyone awarded a scholarship mainly for his athletic ability. *

An athlete who demands payment or expense money for a manager, coach, relative or friend.

Those who have received payment of expenses in excess of the actual outlay.

Those whose occupation (studies or employment) has been interrupted for special training in a camp for more than four weeks in any one calendar year. *

Those who have received expense money for more than 30 days, exclusive of the time spent in travelling, in any one calendar year, except when :

- a) The National Federation concerned has given an extension to cover competition in the Olympic Games, Regional Games or Championships, or for genuine matches with other countries ;
- b) The authorities of the International Federation concerned have granted a very limited extension in exceptional circumstances. *

Those who have neglected their usual vocation or employment for competitive sport whether at home or abroad. *

Any employment must be bona fide and not a cover for excessive opportunities for training or competition in sport. *

If an athlete is paid for the use of his name or picture or for a radio or television appearance, it is capitalization of athletic fame as described above. (Even if no payment is made, such practices are to be deplored, since in the minds of many, particularly the young, they undermine the exalted position rightly held by amateur champions.)

PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN

Female athletes may be subjected to medical proof.

DOPING

The use of drugs or artificial stimulants of any kind is condemned and any person offering or accepting dope, in any form whatsoever, cannot participate in the Olympic Games. Conviction of a competitor for the use of dope shall result in the disqualification of the entire team in that sport.
