Address Spoken at the Closing Ceremony at Grenoble

In the name of the International Olympic Committee I offer to General Charles de Gaulle and to the people of France, to Mayor Dubedout and to the authorities of the city of Grenoble, to President Michallon and to the Organizing Committee of the Games, to the Count Jean de Beaumont and the French Olympic Committee our deepest gratitude. I declare the Games of the Xth Olympiad closed and, in accordance with tradition, I call upon the Youth of all countries to assemble four years from now at Sapporo, there to celebrate with us the Games of the XIth Olympiad. May they display cheerfulness and concord so that the Olympic Torch will be carried on with ever greater eagerness, courage and honour for the good of humanity throughout the ages.
