

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE INTERNATIONAL OLYMPIC ACADEMY

- * Seat: Olympia
- * Postal address: Rue Kapsali 4. Athens 138 - Greece.
- * President: H.R.H. Prince GEORGE OF HANOVER.
- * Activities: Archaeology, history, education (sport formation of character) psychology, sports medicine, architecture, (Gymnasiums, stadiums etc...) journalism, modern training methods etc...
- * Official languages: French and English.
- * The Commemorative Stele in which the heart of Pierre de COUBERTIN rests has been transferred in 1963, to one of the Academy's valleys opposite the ancient Stadium uncovered by the German Archtaeological School.

- * The Olympic Flame Altar is situated a few yards from this site. In the future the flame will depart from the "Pierre de COUBERTIN Valley".
- * The Modern Olympics History Museum at the Academy

Is of great interest thanks to the donation of Mr. George PAPASTEPHANOU : important philatelic collection, medals - photographic and literary documents . . .

* * *