

BIBLIOGRAPHY

OLYMPIC GAMES AND OLYMPISM

DIE OLYMPISCHEN SPIELE - MEXICO and GRENABLE - 1968

The Olympic Games

Published by: Bertelsmann Sachbuchverlag

The sports editorial staff of the publishers Bertelsmann, in collaboration with "Sport-Informations-Dienst", published this 350 page book, containing 160 photographs. The preface is signed by the President of the International Olympic Committee, Mr. Avery BRUNDAGE.

OLYMPISCHE SPIELE 1968 by Harald LECHENPERG

"Grenoble - Mexico City"

The Olympic Games 1968

Copress-Verlag of Munich

This is a complete and abundantly illustrated work to which the President of the International Olympic Committee, Mr. Avery BRUNDAGE has written an introduction. In this he declares that many new followers will be rallied to the Olympic Movement, thanks to publications of this standard.

DIE GESCHICHTE DER OLYMPISCHEN LEICHTATHLETIC

The History of Olympic Athletics by EKKEHARD zur MEGEDE
Verlag Bartels and Wernitz KG of Berlin, Munich and Frankfurt.

This first volume, of which the forward is written by Dr. Max DANZ, vice-president of the German Olympic Committee, covers the period 1896-1936. It forms one of the most precise historical and statistical authorities, with a lengthy analysis of each event.

Photographs, some are little known, complete this remarkable and valuable study.

MEXICO JEUX OLYMPIQUES 1968 by Daniel PAUTRAT
Mexico Olympic Games 1968
published by: Arthaud, France

A beautiful, illustrated album, for which Daniel PAUTRAT, journalist in the French Radio and Television Office, has summarised each event in Mexico during the fortnight in October.

LES JEUX OLYMPIQUES by Yves NOUCHI and R. DEPARDON
The Olympic Games
Published by: Solar

With the numerous photographic illustrations conjuring up memories of the competitions, Yves NOUCHI endeavours to recreate in words the Mexican atmosphere during the days of the XIXth Olympiad.

SPORT

LE SPORT VU A TRAVERS L'OBJECTIF by Ion MIHAICA
Sport Through the Eye of the Camera
Rumanian Olympic Committee

Through a series of particularly brilliant artistic photographs, Ion MIHAICA, a Rumanian photographic reporter, carries us through a world where the Olympic spirit reigns supreme.

"FAIR PLAY" by Paul LAVEN
Limpert-Verlag of Frankfurt

The present state of sport in every continent is the subject of this new volume which joins the ranks of "the finest sports histories". In his descriptions of diverse events, Paul LAVEN, radiodiffusion and television reporter, studies this theme by portraying various athletes and outlining their methods of training. From this we learn particularly the extent to which the feeling towards sport is developing in Africa and Asia.

PROBLEM ATHLETES AND HOW TO HANDLE THEM by Dr. Bruce OGILVIE and Dr. Thomas A. TUTKO (3rd Edition)
Published by: Pelham Books, 26 Bloomsbury Street, London.

Two American psychologists who teach at the University of San Jose, Dr. Bruce P. OGILVIE and Dr. Thomas A. TUTKO, have been working together for several months on the subject of the psychological aspects of sport and training.

Their research was carried out in collaboration with well-known trainers such as George HAINES, James COUNSILMAN and Payton JORDAN.

The problems which arise most frequently concerning the personality and character of sportsmen taking part in high standard competition are depicted and remedies prescribed.

SPORT THROUGH SPORT

"HANDBALL INTERNATIONAL"

Illustrated work by the International Federation written in German, French and English.
Published by: Oho POHL

More than 150 shots taken by the German photographic reporter Hanns APFET show how the dynamism and beauty of the game are related to technique and tactics.

Emile HORLE (Switzerland) president of the Technical Committee of the International Handball Federation, has supplemented it with useful information.

FEMININE ATHLETICS 1968 by Jan POPPER, Pete POZZOLI and Yves PINAUD

Published by: the magazine "Women's Track and Field World"

Statisticians, documentalists, specialists in feminine athletics will appreciate the work involved in publishing this book. It contains the national results of 1967, a historical section, a chronology of records, articles-on great champions of the past etc.

*

*

*