

Olympic Study Week in Cairo

From 12th to 19th February, the Comité Olympique de la République Arabe Unie organised an Olympic Study Week in Cairo. The conferences were attended by 120 people representing federations and sporting bodies in the United Arab Republic. These days, marked with success, were honoured by the presence of four members of the International Olympic Committee, Cheik Gabriel GEMAYEL (Lebanon), Mr. A.D. TOUNY (U.A.R.), Hadj Mohammed BENJELLOUN (Morocco) and Mr. Mohamed MZALI (Tunisia).

Next year, this event will be open to sporting leaders of the Arab countries, in order to train the participants for the Session of the International Olympic Academy.

To make the occasion of these days, a diploma has been presented to the International Olympic Committee.
