

N O T A

In our last edition, on page 10, we stated that a postal vote had been sent out to all the members of the International Olympic Committee, concerning the ski problems. There has been some confusion about the wording which was used. It was in fact a questionnaire purely for the information of the Members of the Executive Board.