

To President Brundage, the aztec eagle

Mr. Emilio RABESSA, Minister of Foreign Affairs (center) has just presented President BRUNDAGE (left) with the order of the Aztec Eagle. On the right, Mr. Josué SAENZ, President of the Mexican Olympic Committee.

From May 7th to 11th, President BRUNDAGE was in Mexico, where he performed one of his last official visits.

He was heartily welcomed, and received many tokens of gratitude for helping the Mexican National Olympic Committee in the organisation and holding of the XIXth Olympiad, in 1968.

During his visit, Mr. BRUNDAGE was decorated with the highest Mexican distinction, the Aztec Eagle, by Mr. Emilio RABESSA, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Besides, Mr. Luis ECHEVERRIA, President of the Mexican Republic, and Mr. Octavio SENTIES, Mayor of Mexico, had cordial conversations with the President of the International Olympic Committee.

During a private lunch, offered by Mr. Marte R. GOMEZ, International Olympic Committee member for Mexico, and Dr. José SAENZ, President of the Mexican Olympic Committee, President BRUNDAGE had the opportunity of sampling the warmth of the Mexican hospitality.
