

- Raymond Beauchemin, Director General of Communications

Well known in the administration world of sport and communications, Mr. Beauchemin was the co-ordinator of the athletics match between Canada and Russia in 1973, and in this capacity was largely responsible for the meeting's international success.

Born in 1933 in Montreal, he holds a commercial degree of the Sir Georges Williams University. Since 1960, he has enlivened many radio and television sports programmes from Radio Canada. As a practising sportsman, Mr. Beauchemin resides over several sports associations.