

Olympic Notebook

● Mr. Willi Daume, IOC Vice-President and member for Germany since 1956, has been in hospital for an operation. His many friends hope to see him fully recovered in Montreal, and we send him our very best wishes.

● Mr. Ydnekatchew Tessema, IOC member for Ethiopia since 1971, will complete a further term as President of the African Football Confederation. 80 delegates representing the 36 member federations of the AFC renewed their confidence in him by acclamation.

● Lieut.-Colonel R. H. Russell, Honorary President of the Association Internationale de Boxe Amateur, was introduced to the Olympic Order at a splendid reception in London on 22nd April. The silver medal was presented to him by the doyen of the IOC, the Marquess of Exeter.

● Mr. Red Smith, the famous sports journalist of "The New York Times", has just obtained the highest award on which a man of his profession can pride himself: the Pulitzer Prize. Our warmest congratulations.

● Mr. Ian Wooldridge, of the "Daily Mail" of London, distinguished yet again. Our talented colleague, who often attends Olympic meetings, appears in the 1976 list of honours as best columnist, having received the title of sports journalist of the year in 1975. Our hearty congratulations.

● Stop Press

Mr. Mohamed Mzali, member of the IOC Executive Board and member for Tunisia since 1965, has become the Minister for National Education again. He has already occupied this position from 1971 to 1973 before becoming Minister for Public Health.

Mr. Jorge B. Vargas, IOC member for the Philippines since 1936, has just been elected interim President of the National Olympic Committee of the Philippines. We send him all our congratulations.
