According to our study published on page 122 of No. 101-102 of "Olympic Review", 1368 athletes were present at the XIIth Winter Games. Since then, Dr. Karl-Heinz Klee, Secretary General of the Organising Committee, has sent us the statistics for the actual participants in these Games. Furthermore, the nine members of the Argentine delegation were omitted from our previous table, for which we apologise to our readers.

Here then, we set out below the official figures for participation in the XIIth Winter Games for our statistical readers.
