

At IOC headquarters

In January five delegates of the Organising Committee of the Games celebrating the XXIInd Olympiad in Moscow in 1980 spent nearly a week at the Chateau de Vidy. Led by Mrs. Dina Smirnova accompanied by Mr. Sergei Novozhilov, the delegation was able to get to know the members of the Secretariat, and various meetings and research in the library or archives enabled our guests to study different aspects of Olympic preparation. Our photo shows, from left to right : Mrs. Gertruda Kuznetsova, deputy head of the Accreditation Section and Personnel Department, Mr. Vladimir Rasumovsky, deputy head of the President's secretariat, Mr. Sergei Novozhilov, head of the Protocol and Olympic Ceremonies Department, Mrs. Dina Smirnova, section head in the International Department, and Mr. Andrei Shishmonin of the International Department.