

At IOC headquarters

During the last two months the IOC headquarters have welcomed numerous visitors to the Château de Vidy either to do research and consult the library and archives, or to participate in meetings and discuss Olympic affairs.

From the top our photos show :

Mr. Rolf Müller, responsible for the art direction of the 1981 Olympic Congress and Dr. Ulrich Pabst, press attache for the NOC of Germany and in charge of all press matters for the Congress ; Col. John R. MacFaden, Vice-President of the Southern California Committee for the Olympic Games ; Mr. Bo Bengtson, Secretary General of the Swedish Olympic Committee and Mr. Michael Burau, a German freelance journalist undertaking research on the administration of the IOC and NOCs.

As well as members of the Juridical, Programme and Tripartite Commissions who all visited the Chateau for meetings of their commissions, we would mention the following visitors :

Mr. Marcello Garroni - Attache to the Coordinator of Olympic Solidarity.

Mr. Denis Belleville - General distribution manager, National Film Office of Canada.

Dr. Robert Madden and Mr. Riley - Lake Placid Organising Committee.

Mr. Philippe Chatrier - President of the International Tennis Federation.

Mr. Stellan Mohlin - President of the International Badminton Federation.

Mr. German Rieckehoff - IOC member in Puerto Rico.

Mr. André Gagnaux - President of the European Billard Confederation.

Lic. Javier Ostos M. - President of the FINA.

Mr. Adriaan Paulen - President of the IAAF.

Mr. Joao Havelange - IOC member in Brazil and President of the FIFA.

Professor Gene Glader - Department of Physical Education and Athletics of Bethel College in Minnesota (USA), leading a group of some 30 students who, as part of their "History of the Olympics" course, visited Olympia, Innsbruck and Munich as well as other European cities. At the Chateau, one of the highlights of their trip, they were able to visit the library and see some of the museum pieces on show in the headquarters and then listen to a talk on the Olympic movement and its many aspects.

Mr. Romolo Marcellini - Film producer who amongst many other films made the official film of the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome.

Dr. Jorga and Mrs. Torii - International Amateur Karate Federation.

Mr. Régis de Kalbermatten - Secretary General of the European Broadcasting Union (EBU).

