● New appointments

Harry Fregoe (our photo) of Lake Placid has been appointed Mayor of the Olympic village and at the same time will continue to serve as Chairman of the Athletes Housing Department. Amongst numerous other community activities, Mr. Fregoe has served as a trustee on the Village of Lake Placid Board for ten years and Deputy Mayor for seven years.

● World television broadcasters held a three-day meeting recently in Lake Placid to discuss communication facilities and requirements for the 1980 Winter Games. Mr. Arch Swinyer, Deputy Director of Marketing and Television for the Organising Committee, reported that a broad range of topics was covered including television centre requirements, commentators' positions at venue sites, communication services, video and audio circuits, accommodation and transport facilities.

The meeting was attended by 30 representatives from the following countries : CAN, ESP, GBR, JPN, NOR, SUI, TCH, URS and USA.
