

French Academy of Sports

At its annual General Assembly, the French Academy of Sports, with Comte Jean de Beaumont, member of the IOC Executive Board presiding, honoured Henry Rono (four world records over the year), Pierre Mazeaud and his team (climbing of Everest), Didier Flament (foil world champion) and Robert Chatpatte (for the quality of his journalism). As Messrs. Jacques Goddet and Jean Borotra, Vice-Presidents of the Academy of Sports, had decided to step down, Messrs. Roland Peugeot and Claude Foussier were unanimously elected as their replacements. The General Assembly also co-opted four new members, Madame Monique Berlioux, Director of the IOC, and Messrs. Michel Jazy, Jean-Luc Lagardère and Pierre Mazeaud.
