

Other federations

World Taekwondo Federation (WTF)

- Mr. Un Yong Kim, President of the World Taekwondo Federation, has asked us to publish the WTF's new address : San 76 Yuksamdong, Kangnam-Ku, Seoul, Korea. Telephone : 56-2505 or 57-1018/9. Address for cables : World Taekwondo. Readers might also take note that Mr. Wooyoung Hyun serves as the Federation's Secretary General.
- The World Taekwondo Federation, which now boasts a membership of 99 national federations, held its 4th world championships in Düsseldorf (GER) from 26th to 28th October. Korean entries proved best among the 52 countries which took part in the competitions, capturing seven gold medals, followed by Mexico, the Federal Republic of Germany and the Netherlands. Prior to the opening of this event, the Federation held its general assembly. Among the major decisions adopted by delegates were the selection of Mexico as host for the 5th world championships to be held in 1981 and the approval of constitutional amendments allowing for the creation of women's and university committees within the WTF. A seminar for taekwondo referees, organised under the auspices of the Federation also took place in Düsseldorf during the week preceding the championships.

International Association of Amateur Baseball (AINBA)

- The world championships are to be staged by the Japanese federation from 22nd August to 5th September 1980. Matches are to be played in Tokyo, Yokohama and Tokorozawa, at stadia equipped with artificial turf.
