

Bibliography

LE RUGBY, C'EST UN MONDE (Rugby is a whole world), by Jean Lacouture. Published by Le Seuil, Paris (FRA), 246 pages, in French, 1979.

As soon as he gets back from his fine political reporting for the French daily "Le Monde", Jean Lacouture rushes to the rugby ground, whose atmosphere appeals so strongly to him. In a poetic way, he recounts the history of the oval ball, following its many fanciful and unpredictable rebounds which make rugby a sport defying all Cartesianism. In this book, the author gives us an opportunity of discovering a little known aspect of his great talent and personality.

JE FAIS DU SPORT, TU FAIS DU SPORT (I go in for sport, you go in for sport), by Stephane Petrov. Published by Sofia Presse. 32 pages.

This brochure gives a brief account of the history and organisation of sport in Bulgaria.

WHITE BALL IN GREEN FIELD, Hockey at the Olympic Games. by Albert Leikin. Published in December 1979 by Sovetskaya Rossia Publishing House, Moscow (URS) 93 pages, in Russian. Price 70 kopeks.

In 1960, the USSR team will be competing for the first time in the Olympic hockey tournament. As a result, this sport is meeting with steadily growing interest in the country. In order to meet it, Albert Leikin, one of the best known Soviet sports journalists, retells the history of hockey at the Olympic Games.

LE BOBSLEIGH (Bobsleigh), by Jacques Christaud. Published by Chiron Sports, 40, rue de Seine, 75006-Paris (FRA). Preface by Eugenio Mont. 96 pages, in French. 1980.

A real expert who took part in the Winter Games in 1966 and 1972 as a competitor, and in 1976 as a coach, the author explains clearly the different practices and regulations of this sport.

A STRATEGY FOR BRITISH SPORT, by Don Anthony. Published by C. Hurst and Company, 112 Henrietta St., London WC2 8PS (GBR). 1980. 162 pages, in English.

A probing examination of the role to be played by sport in modern society. Thoroughly versed in the intricacies of sports organisation in his homeland and elsewhere, Don Anthony discusses the historical roots of British sport, outlines current realities and completes his work with a veritable manifesto for British sport based on greater involvement by the ordinary citizen.

THE RUNNER'S COMPLETE MEDICAL GUIDE. by Richard Mangi. Peter Jokl. and O. William Dayton. Published by Summit Books, New York (USA). 1979. 318 pages. In English.

A reference manual of all injuries and other physical difficulties which may be encountered by those seriously involved in athletics. Causes, symptoms, diagnoses and treatment are provided in simple, concise terms, accompanied by explanatory diagrams.

IDEA Y ACCION DEL DEPORTE (Idea and action of sport). by Guillermo Lopez Portillo. Published by the Mexican National Institute of Sport (INDER), Cozumel No 47, Mexico 7. D F. and prepared by the Organising Committee of the 10th World University Games. Trilingual in Spanish, English and French, 434 pages. 1979.

This book expresses the ideas on sport of the Director of INDER. Mr. Guillermo Lopez Portillo, and summarises the work he has done to promote physical activities.

LE FOOTBALL, LE PLAISIR, LA VIOLENCE (Football pleasure and violence). by Dominique Duvauchelle. Published by "Le Solitaire". Distributed by Chiron-Sport. 40, rue de Seine. 75006 Paris (FRA) In French. 183 pages, 1979.

A lecturer at Paris XII University and a television reporter, the author, a great football enthusiast, attempts to analyse the reasons and motives for the popularity of this sport in a book that is half pamphlet, half diary.