

Olympic notebook

- Mr. Constantin Tsatsos, President of the Hellenic Republic, has been presented with the Coudenhove - Kalergi award for his major contribution to political unity and cultural development in Europe. The award ceremony took place in Lausanne's Municipal Theatre on 18th February with many illustrious European dignitaries in attendance, among them Mr. Jean-Pascal Delamuraz, Syndic of Lausanne, Mr. Otto de Habsbourg, international President of the Pan-European Union, Mr. Gerard Bauer, President of the Coudenhove-Kalergi Foundation, Mr. Edmond Giscard d'Estaing of the French Institute, Mr. Albert Weitman, Swiss Federal Councillor and Mr. Pierre Graber, a former Swiss Federal Councillor.

congratulations to Mr. Leclef for whom the award constitutes just recognition of his 35 years of exemplary service to both Olympism as a whole and the sport of bobsleigh in particular.

- The "Olympic Review" offers its congratulations as well to Mrs. Emmy Schwabe who was also awarded the Olympic Order in Lake Placid.

- Colonel Marcel Leclef is shown here shortly after being presented with the bronze medal in the Olympic Order in Lake Placid. The "Olympic Review" hereby extends its