

Bibliography

LA COURSE A PIED POUR TOUS (Running for everyone), by N. Tamini, Y. Jeannotat and Dr. J. Turblin. Published by Amphora SA, 14, rue de l'Odéon, 75006 Paris (FRA), 1980. 259 pages, in French.

A complete guide for those, irrespective of age, who wish to maintain a good level of physical fitness, through the increasingly popular sport of running. There are specialised sections on all aspects of the sport including diet, competition, equipment and doping. Of particular interest is the chapter dealing with "veteran" runners.

EUROPA 80, by Mario Meli, Charles Camenzuli and Emanuel Gauci. Published by San Cwaxhin Press, Birkirhara (MLT). 120 pages, 1980, in Maltese.

A complete guide to Maltese football featuring historical background, statistics and photographs of outstanding national players.

OLYMPIC GREATS, by Graeme Wright. Published by Queen Anne Press, Macdonald and Jan's, Paulton House, 8 Shepherdess Walk, London, N17LW. 159 pages, in English, 1980. Price : £ 5.95.

This book tells the stories of 19 great Olympic events and personalities from Dorando Pietri's London marathon in 1908 to Lasse Viren's triumphs at Montreal in 1976.

YACHT CLUB ITALIANO 1879-1979, by Franco Belloni. Published by Stabilimento Grafico della Fabbri Editori S.p.A. Milan (ITA). 171 pages, 1979, in Italian.

A fitting tribute to 100 years of yachting in Italy with biographies, excellent photographs and period lithographs.

ENGLISH-RUSSIAN DICTIONARY OF SPORTS TERMS AND PHRASES, by Alexander Gavrilovets. RUSSIAN-FRENCH DICTIONARY OF SPORTS TERMS AND PHRASES, by Alexander Gavrilovets and Jean-Pierre Dieusossois. Both books published by Russian language publishers, 23 Pushkinskaya Street, 103009 Moscow (URS). 424 and 304 pages respectively.

No one journeying to this summer's Olympic events in Moscow need be intimidated any longer by the intricacies of Cyrillic script ! These simple Yet comprehensive guides provide sports enthusiasts with a list of terms for all Olympic events and then offer them the means for carrying on an informal conversation.

LA GRANDE AVENTURE (The Great Adventure), edited by Jean-Claude Larouchet. Published by Les Editions JCL Enr. Ottawa (CAN), 1980. 252 pages, in French.

Backed up by numerous photographs, this official report of the organising committee of the 1979 canoeing-kayak world championships recalls all the details, anecdotes, anxieties and joys of 'what was truly a "great adventure"'.

THE PUFFIN BOOK OF ATHLETICS, by Neil Allen (foreword by Sebastian Coe). Published by Penguin Books Limited, Harmondsworth, Middlesex (GBR), 1980. 173 pages, in English. Price : 90p.

Neil Allen, a journalist of repute, traces the history of athletics from the Games of antiquity right up to modern times. The work includes a section on training exercises and techniques, 16 pages of photographs and a statistical section.