

Bibliography

LE DROIT PÉNAL ET SPORT (Criminal law and sport), degree thesis prepared by Anne Leroy under the guidance of Professor Robert Legros of the law faculty of the Brussels Free University (BEL) 1980. 101 pages in French.

In this exhaustive thesis, Anne Leroy traces the history and evolution of the incursion of the criminal law into sport which began, in her country, as late as 1958 (loi Philipart) and should be congratulated on the thoroughness of her research and the clarity with which she puts forward her arguments. We shall be publishing extracts from this work in future issues of the Olympic Review.

ARCHIE'S LITTLE BLACK BOOK OF ENCOURAGEMENT, by H. Archie Richardson. Published by Four Generations Publishing Company, 2857 Bucksin Road, Pinole, CA 94564 (USA) 1979. 39 pages, in English.

A special edition of this popular history of ancient and modern track and field athletics published to coincide with the 100th birthday of its author, Archie Richardson, who did not finish researching the book until he was 99!

The book's theme may be summarised in the words of the author, "Aim high—don't limit yourself. Don't be discouraged if your progress is slow. Persevere no matter what the odds may be."

THE ANCIENT OLYMPIC GAMES by Judith Swaddling. Published for the trustees of the British Museum by British Museum Publications Limited, 6 Bedford Square, London WC1B 3RA (GBR) 1980. 79 pages, in English.

In tracing the history of the ancient Games in vivid and highly readable style, Judith Swaddling transmits to the reader some of the strange mysticism surrounding these festivities held in honour of the god Zeus.

This highly informative work is abundantly illustrated and includes a picture of a model of Olympia specially commissioned by the trustees of the British Museum.

SPORTSGUIDE FOR TEAM SPORTS 1980, edited by Richard A. Lipsey. Consulting editor, Richard W. Kazmaier Jr. Published by Sportsguide Inc., P. O. Box 5411, New York, New York 10163 (USA) 1980. 288 pages in English.

Distributed exclusively to libraries by Gale Research Company, Sportsguide 1980 is a master reference work for all aspects of the team sports market in North America. In addition, it includes histories of each sport, and a bibliography of recently published books. An executive index is found in the yellow page section.

MANUEL PRATIQUE DE L'ALIMENTATION DU SPORTIF (Practical handbook of diet for the sportsman), by Albert-François Creff and Leone Berard. Published by Masson, 120, boulevard Saint-Germain. 75280 Paris (FRA). 506 pages, in French.

Two highly qualified nutritionists have drawn upon 25 years of experience as advisers on diet problems in the realm of top-level competitive sport (including the Olympic Games) to produce this definitive reference book. Although the work is designed specifically for practitioners, coaches and athletes, it is of general application and will therefore be of interest to all those who wish to maintain peak condition through a healthy, balanced diet.

JOURNAL DE L'ANNÉE (Yearbook) published by Larousse, 17, rue du Montparnasse, and 114, boulevard Raspail, Paris VI (FRA) 1980. 416 pages, in French.

The 1980 edition of this authoritative and highly popular reference work covers the year 1st July 1979 to 30th June 1980. While the book deals with the latest developments in all spheres of modern life from politics and economics to religion and the arts, sports enthusiasts will, of course, be particularly interested in the comprehensive section devoted to sports statistics.