

Olympism in mourning

With great sadness, we have learned of the deaths of other defenders of the Olympic Movement.

The "Olympic Review" extends its condolences to the family and friends of these sports personages.

- General Pierre Carolet (FRA, 83) honorary member of the International Fencing Federations.
- Ray Cochran (USA, 62). Olympic champion of the 400 m flat race in 1948 in London.
- Juan Gich (ESP, 56), President of the Spanish Olympic Committee from 1970 to 1975.
- Helge Gustafsson (SWE, 80), member of the Olympic winning gymnastics team in Anvers in 1920.
- John Kieran (USA, 89), writer and journalist, author of a book on the Olympic Games.
- Valeria Nagy (HUN, 81), Hungarian gymnastics team member at the Olympic Games of 1928, named honorary President of the FIG in 1976 after a praiseworthy career with the women's technical committee.
- Guillermo Quintero (COL). Executive Committee member of the Colombian Olympic Committee.
- Henry Ross (NOR, 78) previous Vice-President of the ISU.