

IFBB

The People's Republic of China has just become the 128th country to be affiliated to the IFBB. The federation's president, Mr. Ben Weider, travelled recently to the Chinese capital, Beijing, to attend the Hercules Cup tournament which is the national championship. While there, he was able to promote body-building through meetings with sports officials, including Mr. Li Meng Hua, Minister of Sport, and journalists. Mr. Weider also lectured to more than two hundred coaches and trainers of various sports at the Beijing Academy of Physical Culture.
