

---

SPORT FOR ALL AND DEVELOPMENT

From the 9th to 12th March, the German Sports Confederation (DSB) will be holding, with the IOC'S assistance, an international conference in Frankfurt on the theme of the development of sport for all in the countries of the third world. Many distinguished figures from the world of sport are expected to attend this colloquium, among them the IOC President, who will be speaking at length on the substance of sports activities in these countries and the conditions for their promotion, in light of his experiences during his recent trips to Africa and Asia.