

As a preliminary to the first debate of the Session, due to start the next day, the three new members coopted at the Istanbul Session took the oath, namely Messrs. Anton Geesink (HOL), Slobodan Filipovic (YUG) and Seuli Paul Wallwork (SAM). The presentation was made by Mr. James Worrall, IOC Member in Canada and recently-appointed head of Olympic protocol. The culmination of this formal but very successful occasion was the awarding of the Olympic Order to Sir Lance Cross and Mr. Henry Hsu, who having reached the age limit now become honorary members, and also to Jean-Claude Killy, whose presence alone, twenty years after his Olympic victories at the Grenoble Winter Games, was enough to set the camera shutters in the photographers' pool clicking furiously.

Seuli Paul Wallwork congratulated by the IOC President after taking his oath.

Messrs. Slobodan Filipovic (above right) and Anton Geesink (in the centre) taking their oath.

The three recipients of the Olympic Order in the flashlight.

