

SUPPORT FOR THE MUSEUM FROM BROTHER INDUSTRIES

Until now we had omitted to mention the donation of one million dollars by the firm Brother Industries towards the construction of the new Olympic Museum. The cheque was handed over during a dinner attended by the IOC President; Mr. Raymond Gafner, Administrateur Délégué ; Mrs. Françoise Zweifel, Secretary General ; Messrs. Jean-François Pahud, Adrien Vanden Eede and Howard Stupp, respectively Director of the Museum, Marketing Advisor to the President and Director of Legal Affairs ; as well as the top European management of the Japanese firm, namely Messrs. Kazuaki Tazaki, Chairman of Brother Europe ; and his Director General Hiroshi Nakaoki. Mr. Nakaoki explained that the donation showed the firm's active support not just of the Games, but also of the Olympic ideals themselves. The Olympic Review for its part is pleased to announce that it has now Brother amongst its advertisers.
