

1989 IOC TROPHY

To mark the year 1989, the International Olympic Committee intends to award a prize in recognition of any member of the medical profession who has performed outstanding services within the field of sports medicine.

■ The National Olympic Committees are fully entitled to attribute this prize.

■ If you wish to take part in this special initiative, kindly confirm your participation with the IOC Secretariat who will send the trophy to you.