

BIBLIOGRAPHY

HUMANISTYCZNA ENCYCLOPEDIA SPORTU (Humanist encyclopedia of sport), by Wojciech Liponski, published by "Sport i Turystyka", (POL), 1987. 390 pages in Polish.

With this encyclopedia, Wojciech Liponski gives sport its full humanist value. All the definitions offered in these 390 pages relate to sports ethics. This work, illustrated by selected black and white photographs, is indispensable to all "lovers of sport words".

THE OLYMPIC MOVEMENT AND THE MASS MEDIA — PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE ISSUES, published by Hurfort Enterprise Ltd., P.O. Box 61256, 3630 Morley Trail N.W., Calgary, Alberta T2L 1K8 (CAN), 1989. In English.

With a preface by the IOC President, H.E. Juan Antonio Samaranch, this large, important work includes the texts of the speeches given at the conference on "the Olympic Movement and the media" in February 1987 in Calgary. This conference was an "unforgettable moment of reflection and interaction between those who run the Games and the Olympic Movement, and those who cover the Games and the Olympic Movement". The interdependence of the media and the Games, the development of the role of the sports journalist, the press, television and the Games, the Olympic media and Olympic Marketing... are some of the themes presented to the reader.

LE FOOTBALL ET SES RÈGLES — COMPRENDRE L'ARBITRAGE (Football and its rules understanding refereeing), published by Editions Chiron, 40, rue de Seine, 75004 Paris, (FRA), 1989. 360 pages in French. Price : FF. 75.—.

For a better knowledge of the laws of football and the "job" of the referee. Updated every years, this work describes the rules of the game and their interpretation. Around 650 questions accompany a detailed exploration of this sport. In his preface, the international referee Michel Vautrot asserts that publication "is the faithful, well-researched and simple companion" to which he refers "for exams, updating knowledge or in monuments of doubt".

ORGANISATIONS ET FÉDÉRATIONS SPORTIVES — SOCIOLOGIE ET MANAGEMENT (Sport organizations and federations — sociology and management), by Bernard Ramanantsoa and Catherine Thiéry-Baslé, published by Editions Puf, 108, boulevard St-Germain, 75006 Paris (FRA), 1989. 260 pages in French, Price : FF 195.—.

This book examines the functioning and dysfunctioning of sports organizations by means of financial, sociological and economic analyses. The two authors present the strategy of these sports federations and then proceed to examine their decision-making processes and organizational structure, and finally outline their identity. The work conclude with a consideration of the political dimension of the development of these organizations.

THE VOLVO WORLD CUP — THE FIRST TEN YEARS, by Max E. Ammann, published by Geiger AG, Berne (SUI), 1989. 159 pages in English.

This magnificent work explores the first ten years, from 1979 to 1989, of the Volvo equestrian World Cup. The creation and the beginnings of this international competition, all the participants and their rankings are listed and illustrated by numerous quality photographs.

